

An Appeal for the upcoming projects of Shri Lalithambiga Trust

Shri Lalithambika Trust is a public charitable trust devoted towards social welfare since 1997. In the past years of activity it has extended its dedicated service in providing food, medical aid and educational assistance to the underprivileged sector. Sri Lalithambikai Amman Temple was built in the year 2000, and the Kumbabishekam was performed by His Holiness Pujya Sri Dhayanandha Swamiji, Arsha Vidya Gurukulam. It was blessed by His Holiness Santahlinga Ramaswami Adikallar of Perur Mutt. The temple is well maintained with the dedicated service of Pujya Sri Jagannatha Swami. The temple and meditation centre are located at the foothills of Anuvavi, a place of natural beauty, peace and healing breeze. It is attracting many people who seek peace and serenity.

Recently the trust has started an institution, namely Centre for Cultural Studies in order to promote freelance research in Indian philosophy, religion and culture, and to publish books and research papers. Various seminars and conferences have been conducted. The trust imparts various courses in Vedic Astrology through Sri Lalithambika Jyothish Gurukulam. Sri Vidya Meditation and Yoga and Healthy living courses, camps and seminars are also conducted. Presently, Shri Lalithambiga Trust has resolved to promote the following new projects in view of fulfilling its pre-set aims and objectives in the year 2011- 2012.

1. Sri Lalithambika Chaathraalayaa: Chaathraalayaa is a centre that will provide free food, dress and shelter for the needy children along with school education. Eligible students of in the age group of 7 to 14 can be accommodated in this house. The centre will provide transportation for the students to go to their school for learning. Playgrounds and recreations will entertain the children with good physical and mental health. Yoga, meditation and value education will be imparted.

2. Danya: Danya is the home for senior citizens that will take care of their peaceful and healthy life. Danya will form special self help groups, prayer groups and social service groups with its inmates.

3. Sri Lalithambika Community College: The College is to provide free vocational training to the rural people to improve their knowledge and economical status.

4. Manasvini: The centre will concentrate in providing mental wellness and special attention to children with psychological and learning disorders.

5. Sri Vidya Wellness Centre: This centre will render health services, yoga and meditation programmes.

6. Sri Lalithambika Tapovan: The Mother Goddess Sri Lalithambika is in a state of penance and meditation, and it is a great blessing to meditate under the lotus feet of Devi. Sri Lalithambika

Tapovan will provide shelters and learning facility for the seekers of ultimate realization in the path Vedanta and Sri Vidya.

Land and Building: The trust has decided to purchase a land of 2 Acres for the implementation of the above projects, and the first phase of building construction will be about 4500 sq. ft. The trust is planning to provide accommodation and food for all inmates.

An Appeal: The trustees of Shri Lalithambiga Trust humbly appeal to the philanthropists to extend their support by way of donations in the form of cash, land, building materials, furniture, fixed deposits, shares and debentures. The donors will be allowed one free stay at the Tapovan for three days per year. All names of donors who support the mission with a contribution of INR 1 Lakh and above will be inscribed in the reception. The donors will be provided with a free accommodation for 3 days in a year at the ashram. Special pujas will be performed in their names on their specific days like birthday, wedding day, etc.

We request all supporters and well wishers, students of Pujya Sri Jagannatha Swami, and one and all to contribute generously to this sacred mission.
